LITHURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading: The souls of the just are in the hands of God
Wisdom 3:1-9 (Sheryl Lee)

A Reading from the Book of Wisdom

But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God,
And no torment will ever touch them.
In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died,
And their departure was thought to be a disaster,
And their going from us to be their destruction;
But they are at peace.
For though in the sight of others they were punished,
Their hope is full of immortality.
Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good,
Because God tested them and found them worthy of himself;
Like gold in the furnace he tried them,
And like a sacrificial burnt-offering he accepted them.
In the time of their visitation they will shine forth,
And will run like sparks through the stubble.
They will govern nations and rule over peoples,
And the Lord will reign over them forever.
Those who trust in him will understand truth,
And the faithful will abide with him in love,
Because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones,
And he watches over his elect.

The word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down to green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Response: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Second Reading: Romans 6:3-9 (Conrad Tan)

A Reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him.

This is the word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Gospel: John 11:17-27 (Fr. Raymond)

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to John

When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, some two miles away, and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them about their brother. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, while Mary stayed at home. Martha said to Jesus, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask of him.' Jesus said to her, 'Your brother will rise again.' Martha said to him, 'I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day.' Jesus said to her, 'I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?' She said to him, 'Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Response: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Prayer of the Faithful: Ellenita Lee

Priest: God, the almighty Father, raised Christ his Son from the dead; with confidence we ask him to save all his people, living and dead.

Our response is "Lord, Hear our Prayer"

1. For Francisco who in baptism was given the pledge of eternal life, that he may now be admitted to the company of the saints. We pray to the Lord...
2. Our brother Francisco who ate the body of Christ, the bread of life that he may be raised up on the last day. We pray to the Lord.....
3. For our deceased relatives and friends and for all who have helped us, that they may have the reward of their goodness. We pray to the Lord...
4. For those who have fallen asleep in the hope of rising again, that they may see God face to face. We pray to the Lord...
5. For the family and friends of our brother Francisco that they may be consoled in their grief by the Lord, who wept at the death of his friend Lazarus. We pray to the Lord.

Priest: God, our shelter and our strength, you listen in love to the cry of your people: hear the prayers we offer for our departed brothers and sisters. Cleanse them of their sins and grant them the fullness of redemption. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Response: Amen

Eucharistic Prayer

Eucharistic Acclamation:

Holy, holy, holy Lord God of power, God of might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Amen

Memorial Acclamation:

Christ has died.

Christ has risen

Christ will come again.

The Great Amen

Amen, Amen, Amen
